Thank You

We received this thank you note from the Singing Churchwomen.

Dear Friends,

Thank you so much for hosting the Singing Churchwomen concert. The hard work and planning that goes into planning such an event does not go unnoticed. There were many people present during the day that were so helpful to us, all so pleasant and making sure we were taken care of! Your church was such a blessing to us. Thank you for allowing us to present the Gospel through music to the people of Oklahoma City.

Sincerely,

The Singing Churchwomen of Oklahoma
